- 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
- 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

I-E●

1 SHORT TITLE

2 SECTION 1. This Act may be cited as the "United 3 States-Taiwan Relations Act".

4 DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES GOVERNING UNITED STATES
5 POLICY WITH REGARD TO TAIWAN

6 SEC. 2. United States policy with regard to Taiwan
7 shall be governed by the following principles:

8 (1) The United States desires to preserve and pro-9 mote friendly relations between the people of the 10 United States and the people on Taiwan, as well as 11 the people on the China mainland and all other peoples 12 of the Western Pacific area.

13 (2) Peace and stability in the area are in the polit-14 ical, security, and economic interest of the United 15 States, are matters of international concern, and must 16 be maintained.

17 (3) Continued extensive, close, and friendly com-18 mercial, cultural, and other relations between the 19 people of the United States and the people on Taiwan 20 must be assured.

21 (4) The future of Taiwan must be determined
22 through peaceful means without prejudice to the well-23 being of the people on Taiwan.

24 (5) Any armed attack against Taiwan, or use of 25 force, boycott, or embargo to prevent Taiwan from en-

1 gaging in trade with other nations, would be a threat
2 to the peace and stability of the Western Pacific area
3 and of grave concern to the United States.

4 TITLE I—PROMOTION OF SECURITY IN THE 5 WESTERN PACIFIC

6 PROTECTION OF UNITED STATES SECURITY INTERESTS

7 SEC. 101. (a) In furtherance of the principles set forth in 8 section 2 of this Act, the United States will make available to 9 Taiwan defense articles and defense services for its defense 10 against armed attack.

11 (b) The President shall promptly inform the Congress of 12 any danger to United States interests arising from any threat
13 to the security of Taiwan. The President and the Congress 14 shall determine, in accordance with constitutional processes, 15 appropriate action by the United States in response to any 16 such danger.

17 TITLE II—MAINTENANCE OF COMMERCIAL AND 18 OTHER RELATIONS

19 APPLICATION OF UNITED STATES LAWS TO TAIWAN

20 SEC. 201. (a) No requirement, whether expressed or im-21 plied, under the laws of the United States with respect to 22 maintenance of diplomatic relations or to recognition of a 23 government shall apply with respect to Taiwan.

24 (b)(1) The absence of such relations and such recognition 25 shall not affect the application of the laws of the United

1 States with respect to Taiwan, and the laws of the United 2 States (including laws relating to rights, obligations, standing 3 to sue and be sued, legal capacity, or eligibility to participate 4 in programs and other activities under the laws of the United 5 States) shall apply with respect to Taiwan in the manner that 6 the laws of the United States applied with respect to Taiwan
7 prior to January 1, 1979.

8 (2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, for 9 purposes of the Act of June 27, 1952, Taiwan may be treat-
10 ed in the manner specified in the first sentence of section 11 202(b) of that Act.

12 (3) Pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subsection, inter-
13 ests in property, tangible or intangible, acquired by the Re-14 public of China prior to January 1, 1979, shall not be affect-15 ed in any way by United States recognition of the People's 16 Republic of China.

17 (c) All treaties and other international agreements
18 which were in force between the United States and the Re-19 public of China on December 31, 1978, shall continue in 20 force between the United States and Taiwan unless terminat-21 ed in accordance with their terms or otherwise in accordance 22 with the laws of the United States.

23 MAINTENANCE OF RELATIONS

24 SEC. 202. (a) Except as the President may otherwise 25 provide—

1 (1) dealings of the United States Government 2 with Taiwan shall be conducted by or through such 3 nongovernmental entity as the President, after consul-4 tation with Taiwan, may designate (hereafter in this 5 Act referred to as the "designated entity"); and

6 (2) dealings of Taiwan with the United States
7 Government shall be conducted by or through such in-8 strumentality established by Taiwan as the President
9 and Taiwan agree is the instrumentality which is ap-10 propriate for such dealings and which has the neces-11 sary authority under the laws of Taiwan to provide as-12 surances and take other actions on behalf of Taiwan
13 with respect to the United States Government.

14 (b)(1) The laws of the United States which apply with 15 respect to agencies of the United States Government shall, to 16 the extent the President may specify, apply with respect to 17 the designated entity as if the designated entity were an 18 agency of the United States Government.

19 (2) Any agency of the United States Government may 20 sell, loan, or lease property (including interests therein) to, 21 and perform administrative and technical support functions 22 and services for the operations of, the designated entity upon 23 such terms and conditions as the President may direct. Reim-24 bursements to agencies under this paragraph shall be credited

1 to the current applicable appropriation of the agency
2 concerned.

3 (3) Any agency of the United States Government may 4 acquire and accept services from the designated entity upon 5 such terms and conditions as the President may direct, with-6 out regard to the laws and regulations normally applicable to 7 the acquisition of services by such agency.

8 (c) Upon the granting by Taiwan of comparable privi-
9 leges and immunities with respect to the designated entity 10 and its personnel, the President is authorized to extend with 11 respect to the Taiwan instrumentality described in paragraph 12 (2) of subsection (a), and its personnel, such privileges and 13 immunities (subject to appropriate conditions and obligations) 14 as may be necessary for the effective performance of their 15 functions.

16 SEPARATION OF GOVERNMENT PERSONNEL FOR 17 EMPLOYMENT WITH THE DESIGNATED ENTITY

18 SEC. 203. (a)(1) Under such terms and conditions as the 19 President may direct, any agency of the United States Gov-
20 ernment may separate from Government service for a speci-
21 fied period any officer or employee of that agency who ac-
22 cepts employment with the designated entity.

23 (2) An officer or employee separated by an agency 24 under paragraph (1) of this subsection for employment with 25 the designated entity shall be entitled upon termination of 1 such employment to reemployment or reinstatement with 2 such agency (or a successor agency) in an appropriate posi-3 tion with the attendant rights, privileges, and benefits which 4 the officer or employee would have had or acquired had he or 5 she not been so separated, subject to such time period and 6 other conditions as the President may prescribe.

7 (3) An officer or employee entitled to reemployment or 8 reinstatement rights under paragraph (2) of this subsection
9 shall, while continuously employed by the designated entity
10 with no break in continuity of service, continue to participate 11 in any benefit program in which such officer or employee was 12 participating prior to employment by the designated entity, 13 including programs for compensation for job-related death,
14 injury, or illness; programs for health and life insurance; pro-15 grams for annual, sick, and other statutory leave; and pro-16 grams for retirement under any system established by law or 17 regulation, except that such employment shall be the basis 18 for participation in such programs only to the extent that 19 employee deductions and employer contributions, as required, 20 in payment for such participation for the period of employ-21 ment with the designated entity, are currently deposited in 22 the program's or system's fund or depository. Death or re-
23 tirement of any such officer or employee during approved
24 service with the designated entity and prior to reemployment 25 or reinstatement shall be considered a death in service or

1 retirement from Government service for purposes of any em-2 ployee or survivor benefits acquired by reason of service with 3 an agency of the United States Government.

4 (4) Any employee of an agency of the United States
5 Government who entered into service with the designated 6 entity on approved leave of absence without pay prior to the 7 enactment of this Act shall receive the benefits of this section 8 for the period of such service.

9 (b) Any agency of the United States Government em-
10 ploying alien personnel in Taiwan may transfer such person-11 nel, with accrued allowances, benefits, and rights, to the des-12 ignated entity without a break in service for purposes of re-
13 tirement and other benefits, including continued participation
14 in any system established by law or regulation for the retire-15 ment of employees in which the alien was participating prior 16 to the transfer to the designated entity, except that employ-17 ment with the designated entity shall be creditable for retire-
18 ment purposes only to the extent that employee deductions 19 and employer contributions, as required, in payment for such 20 participation for the period of employment with the designat-21 ed entity, are currently deposited in the system's fund or 22 depository.

23 (c) Employees of the designated entity shall not be em-
24 ployees of the United States and, in representing the desig-

1 nated entity, shall be exempt from section 207 of title 18, 2 United States Code.

3 (d) The salaries and allowances paid to employees of the 4 designated entity shall be treated in the same way for tax
5 purposes under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as sala-6 ries and equivalent allowances paid by agencies of the United 7 States Government.

8 SERVICES TO UNITED STATES CITIZENS IN TAIWAN

9 SEC. 204. (a) The designated entity may authorize any 10 of its employees in Taiwan—

11 (1) to administer to or take from any person an 12 oath, affirmation, affidavit, or deposition, and to per-13 form any notarial act which any notary public is re-14 quired or authorized by law to perform within the 15 United States;

16 (2) to act as provisional conservator of the per-17 sonal estates of deceased United States citizens; and 18 (3) to assist and protect the interests of United 19 States persons by performing other acts authorized to 20 be performed outside the United States for consular 21 purposes by such laws of the United States as the 22 President may specify.

23 (b) Acts performed by authorized employees of the des-24 ignated entity under this section shall be valid, and of like

1 force and effect within the United States, as if performed by 2 any other person authorized to perform such acts.

3 DEFINITIONS

4 SEC. 205. For purposes of this Act—

5 (1) the term "laws of the United States" includes 6 any statute, rule, regulation, ordinance, order, or judi-
7 cial rule of decision of the United States or any politi-8 cal subdivision thereof; and

9 (2) the term "Taiwan" includes, as the context
10 may require, the islands of Taiwan and the Pescadores, 11 the inhabitants of those islands, corporations and other 12 entities and associations created or organized under the 13 laws applied on those islands, and the authorities exer-14 cising governmental control on those islands (including 15 agencies and instrumentalities thereof).

16 IMPLEMENTING REGULATIONS

17 SEC. 206. The President may prescribe such regulations
18 as he deems necessary to carry out this Act.

19 EFFECTIVE DATE

20 SEC. 207. This Act shall be effective as of January 1, 21 1979.
